Attention: Mr. Frank Schilling

Gentlemen:

We are grateful for your letter January 6, but at the moment we could hardly accumulate mixed cars such as you would be needing to open a new retail yard.

You folks have plenty of courage to start a business under conditions that exist today and we want to wish you the best of luck.

We wouldn't advise you to stock up on lumber at its present price, but rather to try to work from "hand to mouth" and sell the material in advance of buying if you possibly can.

With all good wishes,

Cordially yours,

GEORGIA HARDWOOD LUMBER CO.
